

Sampath (Sam) De Silva began his Real State career helping families and investors buy or sell properties in Los Angeles in 2009. Then, moved to Austin, Texas in 2013 for better opportunities for the family, like their children's educational system.

Sampath received his bachelor's degree in Sri Lanka and graduated with his Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree with a GPA of 3.92 at the University of Phoenix Business School in the United States. Currently, Sampath is a member of the Delta-mu-Delta Business Honor Society. Also, he is an active charter member of the International Association of Lions Clubs, which is recognized as the world's largest non-political service organization.

In addition to Real State business, he is also a financial adviser and is well experienced in Travel Business.

Sampath's wife Anusha is a Texas certified public middle school science teacher. They are blessed with three boys, two of which are students of Early College High School and the youngest is attending a middle school.
